SUBJECT: AIC Fudge, James #7994245 – Corridor 3 incident

On 5/3/2023 I was working my assigned post as the HSC4 (Housing Support Corporal) on 3rd shift.

At approximately 5:15 p.m. as I supervised the Corridor 3 feeding line, I heard AIC Fudge, James #7994245 raise his voice at Officer D. Stewart. AIC Fudge said, "Well keep that tray then!" He simultaneously threw his tray on top of the food cart.

At this time, I made my way towards him. He looked at me and said in a loud voice, "What the fuck are you looking at!" As he stated this, he continued walking past me. I gave him a directive, "Stop and turn around." AIC Fudge ignored my directives. Sgt. L. Moore began giving him directives to "stop" and "give me your ID."

AIC Fudge continued walking while he took his ID off his neck and threw it back towards Sgt. L. Moore. I followed AIC Fudge as Sgt. L. Moore gave him multiple directives to "stop". AIC Fudge finally stopped and turned in an aggressive manner towards Sgt. L. Moore. He said, "What the fuck you want!" Sgt. L. Moore and I gave him a directive to turn around and submit to restraints. AIC Fudge complied.

I approached and applied wrist restraints after which Sgt. L. Moore and I began escorting him to Segregation. As we initiated the escort, we passed AIC Fudge's drinking cup laying on the floor. AIC Fudge violently kicked the cup toward the food cart in the direction of a Food Service Coordinator. Sgt. L. Moore and I guided him against the wall for staff safety in a controlled method to prevent him from kicking staff due to his aggressiveness. I then made a radio transmission and requested leg restraints from Segregation.

I could see that AIC Fudge was still agitated and I gave him a directive to get on his knees, and he complied. Officer C. Thompson and Officer J. Christianson arrived and applied leg restraints. Sgt. L. Moore and I then stepped away and they took over the escort to Segregation without further issue.

SUBJECT: Corridor 3 Incident involving AIC James Fudge 7994245

On May 3, 2023, I was working my assigned post as the Housing Support Corporal 3 on third shift. At approximately 5:20 p.m. while monitoring the evening meal service for Unit 8, Adult in Custody (AIC) Fudge, James #7994245 began raising his voice at Officer D. Stewart. Officer Stewart directed AIC Fudge to leave the serving line. AIC Fudge stated, "You know what, you can have it." then dropped his meal tray on top of the food line before walking away toward his assigned housing unit. Sergeant A. Campos gave AIC Fudge a directive to return to his housing unit. AIC Fudge turned and stated, "YOU keep walking!" in an aggressive tone and continued down the corridor toward Unit 8. Sergeant L. Moore, Sergeant Campos, and I began walking toward AIC Fudge while both Sergeants gave AIC Fudge multiple directives to stop walking and give his state identification card to them. AIC Fudge ignored all staff directives. After multiple directives, AIC Fudge stopped and turned sideways, looking toward staff aggressively. He was given a directive to submit to restraints and complied but dropped his cup and fork on the ground. Sergeant Moore kicked them out of the way before helping Sergeant Campos escort AIC Fudge to the Disciplinary Segregation Unit. While in route to DSU, AIC Fudge kicked his cup and fork across the corridor with his left foot. Sergeant Moore and Sergeant Campos directed AIC Fudge to the wall, while giving directives to face forward and remain quiet. I stood directly behind them in the event I needed to assist. Sergeant Campos directed AIC Fudge to get down on his knees and called DSU staff to bring leg restraints to Corridor 3. While waiting, AIC Fudge made many comments to Sergeant Campos, such as, "You're tough once I'm in cuffs." DSU staff placed the leg restraints and escorted AIC Fudge to DSU without further incident.
